

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PARK CITY.

Mrs. L. B. Wight and baby returned Monday morning from an extended visit in Salt Lake.

W. S. Dickert came up to Park Friday morning, called by the death of his sister, Miss Clara Dickert.

Misses Ada and Clara Kimball and Myrtle Peterson gave a picnic Saturday to a number of the high school pupils. An enjoyable time was had.

Mrs. Funk and daughter, Miss Frieda, were incoming passengers Sunday morning.

Miss Frances Shields came home Sunday from Salt Lake.

Miss Alta Ledingham chaperoned a crowd of little folks on a picnic Friday afternoon.

The occasion was the birthday of Miss Eleanor Wight and Guy Wight. A nice lunch was served, and the day was ideal for a picnic.

Mrs. Post returned to Park this week after a month's visit in Millville, Utah, with her daughter, Mrs. Peterson.

The A. B. W. S. boys and girls had a jolly picnic to Rocky Point Wednesday.

Richard Krickler of All Hallows college is visiting in Park, the guest of Emmett Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. Reedman entertained very pleasantly at dinner Sunday in honor of Miss Stewart.

The sophomore class of the high school gave a picnic Wednesday afternoon.

A jolly surprise party was had on Charles Hartwell Friday evening.

Games and music and dancing was indulged in until a late hour, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Grose and son Fred returned to their home in Park this week, after a six months' visit in Everett, Wash.

Mrs. G. E. Hedges visited in Ogden during spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes returned Wednesday from O'Neill, Neb.

The St. Luke's guild met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jean Hampton.

Mrs. Youngberg is home again after several weeks spent in Salt Lake with her mother, Mrs. Kirk.

After the regular meeting of the O. E. S. members Friday evening, a social session was had, a short program rendered and refreshments served.

Mrs. George McLaughlin left for Idaho after a pleasant visit in Park with relatives and friends.

A very pleasant event in society of the young set was the Easter party given by Miss Marjorie Williams to about twelve young friends Saturday afternoon.

First the crowd was taken to the matinee, then returned to Miss Williams' home, where eggs were dyed and games played and refreshments served.

Miss Nellie Jennings came up from Salt Lake Friday morning to spend Easter with her parents.

Charles and Tony McGill and John Kelly, All Hallows students, are spending their Easter vacation in Park with relatives.

Mrs. Jessie N. Priest, the botany teacher in the local high school, took her class on the hill Friday afternoon to search for wild flowers as they are making a study of wild flowers at present.

Mrs. Mike Condon was a passenger to Park Wednesday morning.

Miss Claire Stevenson spent Sunday in Park.

R. J. McCreery spent a few days in Salt Lake this week.

John Williams of Newark, O., is spending a few weeks in Park, the guest of Mrs. E. C. Norris and family.

This is Mr. Williams' first trip west, and he is greatly pleased with this part of the country. He will spend some time in Nevada before returning to his home.

LOGAN.

The Logan Social club gave a swell reception at the Auditorium on Wednesday evening.

A great many of the local "40s" attended the function.

Rev. N. E. Clemenson and wife returned Monday evening from Long Beach, Cal., where they spent the winter months.

P. A. Mitchell spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Salt Lake City, going down to attend a birthday reception given by his sister.

John T. Burnett of Hooper was in Logan the first of the week on a visit to friends.

The people of the Sixth ward tendered a farewell reception to T. L. Kerr on Monday.

Dr. J. A. McCausland, a well known dentist of this city, is preparing to move his family and effects to Corvallis, Ore., where he will make his home in future.

Mrs. Belle Goodwin is in Pocatello, Idaho, on a visit to her daughter.

W. A. Rossiter and wife of Salt Lake City returned to their home this week after a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. D. M. Campbell of Providence.

Mrs. C. B. Smith returned to her home in Minner, Idaho, one week after a pleasant visit with friends.

Henry Crockett went to Dingle, Idaho, this week for a day or two with relatives.

Mrs. Cynthia Vernon returned to her home in Vernal on Sunday after a stay of several months with her son, Professor Weston Vernon.

Lorenzo Hansen is visiting in Montana. He will be away about ten days.

Bert Mason of Boston is here to remain for the summer.

Serge Ballif of Salt Lake is in Logan on a visit to friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Burling of St. Paul are visiting friends in this city.

Joseph Capper returned Tuesday from Salt Lake City, where he spent a couple of weeks with friends.

S. L. Lamont of Salt Lake City is visiting Logan relatives.

Bishop Cranney of Smoot, Wyo., is here on a visit to relatives and friends. He stopped off while on his way home from Evanston, Wyo.

Miss Beth Melton of Weller, Idaho, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Walt Pyper of Salt Lake City spent the first part of the week as the guest of Logan relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Medhurst of La Salle, Ill., are in this city on a visit to friends.

EPHRAIM.

Miss Marian Dorius is spending a few days visiting Miss Laura Christensen of Richfield.

Hazel Nielson, who has been attending school at the Snow academy the past winter, returned to her home in Elsinore Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Lamb and his sister, Mrs. P. C. Anderson, of Wales, visited friends in this city during the early part of the week.

Mrs. Ada Schoelling, after spending the past five weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Logan, returned to her home in Salt Lake Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson, sr., are visiting friends and relatives at Provo and Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. Clyde Bradbury of Helper is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Bosen.

The Misses Myrtle and Gardie Thorpe left for Elsinore Wednesday, where they will remain for a couple of months.

Mrs. Christina Larsen of Mount Pleasant is a guest at the home of Charles Johnson.

Mrs. Anna Jensen of Redmond is here with her brother Rasmus Rasmussen, who is critically ill.

Miss Myrtle Peterson returned from Salt Lake Wednesday, where she has been visiting with friends for some time.

Mrs. August Johansen returned to her home in Salt Lake after spending a few days in this city visiting her children.

Mrs. J. W. Dunn of Thistle is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lena Dorius.

Augusta Stevens returned from Vernal and Salt Lake Monday, where she has been spending the past few months.

A fine baby boy arrived at the home of D. W. Anderson Monday.

NEPHI.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Foote went to Eureka and Mammoth Friday for a brief visit.

F. D. Farrell went on a visit to Salt Lake and Logan Tuesday, to be gone several days.

Leonard Schofield was here from La Grande, Ore., the first of the week, the guest of relatives and friends.

Barth Brough returned from Salt Lake Sunday evening, after a week's visit with friends there.

County Commissioner George McCune was over from Eureka Thursday.

John C. Hall spent Sunday in Provo.

Misses Nellie Holbrook and Emma Anderson were from Provo Sunday.

John L. Ellertson was over from Mona Thursday.

Mrs. E. Hubbard of Park City was the guest this week of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Denn.

Quite an important event of the week was the charity play, "Poled," by some of the leading people of the town.

Those who took part were William Bailey, William Hyde, J. Foote, Charles Haynes, L. M. Pexton, T. C. Winn, Joe Lindhardt, Bert Haynes, Mrs. Della Foster, Ethel Wright and Mrs. Ed Carter.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellsworth Gates of Springfield, Mo., announce the marriage of their sister, Miss Emily Marie Clapp of Easthampton, Mass., to Mr. F. F. Dee of Provo at Springfield, April 7.

Rev. S. T. Kidd of the First Congregational church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Dee will be at home to their friends in this city after May 1.

Almon Robinson of Fillmore is visiting Provo relatives.

Miss Jennie Beers has returned from a visit to friends in Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Passer entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of Joseph R. Murdoch of Heber.

The Kia Ora club was entertained by Professor E. H. Eastmond at the B. Y. U. art studio Saturday evening.

Miss Clara Allen gave a delightful musical Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. R. E. Allen.

Milton Thomas has returned from a trip to Idaho.

Miss Effie Armstrong of Ephraim was the guest of Mrs. Delpha Teasdale the past week.

Miss Lella Farrer has gone to California for a brief visit.

Miss Sidonia Olsen of Mantle is visiting friends in Provo.

Mrs. Hugh Dougall and Misses Katie and Emma Dougall of Springville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hatfield Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Fuller of Knightsville are Provo visitors.

Mrs. C. E. Loose entertained at dinner Wednesday.

Pat Donnelly of Eureka was a Provo visitor the past week.

Bliss Moore is here from Colorado Springs, where he is attending college, to visit friends here and in Salt Lake.

Mrs. John Cochran gave a pleasant soiree at her home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCune of Ogden visited friends in Provo the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton of American Fork were the guests of Miss Alice Smoot the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bullock of Lone

Tree, Wyo., are visiting relatives and friends in Provo.

Ray Hincheliff of Ogden was a Provo visitor Wednesday.

Misses Effie Wagstaff and Annie Hindley of American Fork were the guests of Miss Fern Holdaway Wednesday.

W. W. Billings has returned from a trip to the southern part of the state.

Miss Eva Ward was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. George B. Thatcher has returned from a visit to friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Alice Bryan of Nephi was the guest of Miss Ruby Fatten Thursday.

W. A. Hickenlooper of Ogden and La Mar Nelson of Salt Lake were Provo visitors the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis of Park City are Provo visitors.

A number of Provo gentlemen have formed an association under the name of The Society for Philosophical Research.

The officers are: Robert Anderson, president; F. A. Hulse, vice president; Arthur Craven, secretary and treasurer.

The club meets twice a month.

Ralph Irvine, wife and child are here from Los Angeles visiting Mr. Irvine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Irvine.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bullock are here from Burr Fork, Wyo., visiting relatives.

The La Coterie club gave a lake party Wednesday afternoon. The party was entertained at supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knudsen on the Lake Front drive.

Mrs. Lewellyn Jones of Spanish Fork has been in Provo this week visiting her son, County Recorder Edward T. Jones.

The Emerson class has elected the following officers: Miss Francis Adams, chairman; Miss Tillie Foster, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. M. F. Cummings, director.

The Forum met Monday evening in the B. Y. U. education department. The subject discussed was "Resolved, That the Aggregate Moral Influence of Women is Greater Than That of Men."

The affirmative was taken by R. F. Cummings and Walter Adams, and the negative by George H. Townsend and R. R. Irvine.

The decision was in favor of the negative.

Mayor Brewer of Ogden was a Provo visitor during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Plaid and family have moved to Springfield.

Mrs. F. W. Brose entertained at luncheon Tuesday.

TINTIC.

John Strang was a visitor to Provo last Wednesday.

John Kirkendall of Mammoth returned last Sunday from a trip into Mexico.

John R. Vance spent last Sunday with his family in Payson.

James Gately returned last Monday from a visit to the capital.

James Driscoll made a flying trip to the capital last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Robertson of Mammoth are visiting in California.

John Gately visited Provo last Wednesday.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Darnell last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFistat entertained A. Guthrie of Payson during the week.

Mrs. Thomas Crawley and children are visiting in Nephi.

Mrs. P. J. Comera returned last Sunday from a ten days' visit in Salt Lake City.

Miss Clara Tregonning visited Robinson and Eureka friends during the week.

J. C. Jensen was up from Provo during the week looking after his business interests.

Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. L. S. Alcock next Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank returned last Tuesday from a visit with friends in Salt Lake City.

Joseph, Edith and Anna Treloar are spending the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Treloar.

Mrs. Edward Hanks and her son, Arthur Hanks, left last Wednesday for California. The trip is for the benefit of the former's health.

Mrs. Dr. Pies and her sister, Miss Swain, are visiting in the capital.

Mrs. Thomas Stewardson and her daughter, Mrs. George Scheellings, spent the early part of the week in Provo.

Mrs. J. A. Hyde of Nephi is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Fraser.

Mrs. Dr. Laker is visiting relatives in the capital.

S. E. Ware of Silver City is visiting his family in Payson.

John Roundy returned Friday evening from a visit to Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barton were Provo visitors last Wednesday.

George Hanson returned last Friday from a trip to Grand Junction, Colo.

Mrs. Edward Lewis returned last Tuesday after a visit with friends in the capital.

Joseph Wirthlin of Salt Lake was a Eureka visitor during the week.

Frank Davis and Frank Morley visited the horse show in Spanish Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie are visiting in southern California.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hensel visited in the capital during the week.

Mrs. M. F. Sammon left Thursday to join her husband in Goldfield, Nev.

Mrs. John McDonald was in Eureka last Thursday visiting her mother, Mrs. Gillespie.

John Morley was a visitor in the capital during the early part of the week.

George Taylor will shortly move his family to American Fork, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hurt returned last week from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor in Spanish Fork.

Nels Thompson has been removed to one of the Salt Lake hospitals for treatment for rheumatism.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Laurel Whitehead and Ernest E. Scott, the latter of Salt Lake City.

They will be married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James B. Whitehead, next Wednesday evening.

John and Ashley Boyd of Price are visiting friends in Eureka.

L. C. Doty visited the capital during the week.

Fred Schmidt, Joseph Larson and John Allen went to Provo last Wednesday to attend the horse show.

George Paxman of Silver City was a Eureka visitor Friday afternoon.

Andrew Roslund spent last week visiting friends in Mount Pleasant.

BINGHAM.

Miss Hattie Pike, a Central school teacher who has been in Kansas for the past week, returned to Bingham Tuesday last and resumed her duties as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gibbons were visitors to the city the early part of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Straup were city visitors the early part of the week.

Dr. J. F. Flynn, who has been in Salt Lake and Murray for the past two weeks, returned to camp Friday, and at the present time is assisting Dr. Straup.

Miss Wallace, teacher at the Central school, went to the capital yesterday to spend Easter with her folks.

The family of F. J. O'Neil, who have been living at Copperton, have moved to the city. Miss May O'Neil will resume her studies at the university.

Miss Mary Grey is in Salt Lake spending the Easter holidays with her parents at Waterloo.

Miss Beulah Wittle went to Salt Lake Friday to spend Easter.

The Misses Lund of Highland Bay have gone to Murray for a prolonged stay.

The Canada No. 2 ball Friday night was a great success. A large crowd was in attendance, and dancing continued until late. Supper was served at the Elberton.

The marriage of Robert N. Nichols and Florence E. Hawke occurred this week.

Mrs. Ed Zwickey of Highland Bay returned to camp Monday after a brief stay in the city.

Miss Bertha E. Bennett of Copperton returned from a visit to Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. William May and son, Luke, were city visitors the fore part of the week.

The Women's Unity club will meet with Mrs. E. E. Dudley Wednesday afternoon, April 23.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Little of Stockton were the guests of Mrs. A. Mackinson and daughters during the week.

F. Erdlets of Douglas, Ariz., visited R. S. Oliver in the early part of the week.

Mrs. C. A. Inlow returned from Salt Lake the early part of the week, after a few days' visit in camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Darrenouge returned to the city the first of the week after a few days' visit in camp.

Mrs. H. L. Parker left during the week for Sparta, Ill., to spend a couple of months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Knowles left Wednesday for Los Angeles, to be gone a couple of weeks.

BINGHAM JUNCTION.

Allan McDowen left for Pocatello, Ida., Friday morning.

N. Swanson has returned from Portland, Ore.

A large crowd enjoyed the anniversary ball of the W. O. W. camp at Golf's hall Wednesday evening.

Mrs. T. C. Brown of St. Anthony, Ida., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. White, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Noel Stuart and children, who have been spending several months in southern California, returned home a few days ago.

William Crisler was called home Friday by the death of his sister at Hilliard, Wash. His many friends here sympathize with him in his trouble.

Mrs. E. T. Stewart, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Denel, is spending a few days in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. Kay.

The members of the W. O. W. camp 515 entertained at a dance at the Woodmen hall, a good time was enjoyed by all.

Special Easter services will be held in the M. E. church tonight. A musical program has been provided.

Special Easter anthems will be sung in the L. D. S. church at 2 p. m.

MANTI.

C. W. Sorensen and wife of Mount Pleasant were in the city this week visiting with Mrs. Jorgen Madsen, mother of Mrs. Sorensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen Winter of Levan visited friends in this city this week.

Dwight Mather of Richfield spent the early part of the week in Manti on business.

Albert Elliot of Boston, who is associated with one of the large wool commission houses of that city, was in Manti this week as guest of the officers of the Central Utah Wool company.

A banquet was given in his honor at the Tuttle hotel Wednesday evening.

J. H. Hornung and daughter Margaret visited relatives and friends in Salt Lake City this week.

William D. Livingston, Van D. Spalding, William Hill and Archie Livingston, all of Salt Lake City, came to Manti this week in an automobile to attend to business matters.

E. D. Anderson, formerly county clerk, spent part of the week in Manti visiting friends.

Wilford J. Cole and family of Nephi were in the city this week,